

Unit CU808 Recognise Diversity When Delivering Customer Service

Aims

Many customer service situations involve dealing with diverse groups of people inclusively and with respect. Responses to diversity can lead to discrimination that might or might not be deliberate. Discrimination can result from simply not knowing the beliefs and preferences of different groups or may result from actions based on stereotyping rather than on solid evidence obtained from the customer. This unit is about how the learner can establish their customer's expectations and needs in a way that takes full account of them as an individual. The unit also covers the way the learner provides customer service to diverse groups of customers each of which has common likes and dislikes.

Evidence Requirements

1. Your evidence should be collected when carrying out a real job, whether paid or voluntary, and when dealing with real customers, whether internal or external to the organisation. However, for this Unit, evidence collected in a realistic working environment or a work placement is permissible. Simulation is not allowed for any performance evidence within this Unit. (Guidelines for a Realistic Working Environment can be found in the Assessment Strategy for Customer Service S/NVQs at Levels 1,2,3 and 4 – February 2010)
2. You may collect the evidence for the Unit through work in a private sector organisation, a not-for-profit organisation or a public services organisation.
3. You must provide evidence that shows you have done this over a sufficient period of time with different customers on different occasions for your assessor to be confident that you are competent.
4. Your evidence must show that you have developed your approach to diversity taking account of:
  - a relevant legislation
  - b sector or industry codes of practice
  - c the policies and procedures of your own organisation.
5. You must provide evidence that you have recognised diversity when delivering customer service to people from different groups in relation to four of these sources of diversity:
  - a age
  - b disability
  - c national origin
  - d sexual orientation
  - e values
  - f ethnic culture
  - g education
  - h lifestyle
  - i beliefs
  - j physical appearance
  - k social class
  - l economic status.
6. You must provide examples of situations when you have adapted your behaviour to:
  - a deliberately adopt different approaches to different groups of customers
  - b deliberately adopt a consistent approach to groups of customers who you recognise as having diverse requirements.
